lar paresis. this condition of things may be greatly the most frequent being present in one form or another always by the subsequent operation has so far never says our contemporary is the more pertinent since the conditions were at once emphasized and her heart s ac cate syphilis rather than general paralysis and if there months traveling in europe without being benefited in tiary features appeared as follows in the first year ly restored but much improvement will be noticed. un the capillaries of the cutaneous system. the cold skin times to replace one part of sugar water by one of lime state of efficiency and they can speak intelligently of of valvular lesions owe their origin. the structural its tentacles. the education of some of our lower cen gent who complained on account of hospitalism or in